
"Engaging Men and Boys to End Violence Against Women: The Bro-Versation continues"

- Man Talk Take Two -

April 22, 2010
City Hall, Ottawa

Overview

In October 2009, our Man Talk forum looked to begin a dialogue to include men in initiatives to end violence against women. Today, we are happy to have some male community leaders present and highlight the initiatives they have participated in since Man Talk. They will be presenting their videos, spoken word, theatre presentations and more.
